I/We understand that a Chamber of Commerce, at times called a "Board of Trade" or "Business Council", is an apolitical organization of businesses that work together to further mutual interests, and that commercial Chambers exist on international, national, regional, and city levels as Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's)/Not-For-Profit Organizations (NFPO's) voluntary-led and paid in large by members voluntarily contributions.

I/We understand that The Arab Chamber of Commerce & Industry (also known as, ARABCCI / ArabCham) is a Hong Kong Civil Society that exists to support and connect companies, bringing together members to build new relationships, share best practices and foster new business opportunities.

Membership Joining

I/We understand that any limited company, partnership, association or proprietorship in good standing may apply to become a member. Any Company Membership (CM) allows (1) one person to be nominated as a representative, with additional nominee-ship being a privilege.

Membership Procedure

I/We understand that the express completed membership joining request is to be addressed to the Chamber Secretary General for grant of membership consideration, duly executed by an authorized signatory of the applicant company with the organization's stamp.

Membership Approval

I/We understand that my/our joining request will be considered, and upon timely approval, a membership number will be granted and advised.

Membership Payment & Refund Policy

I/We understand that all payments could be settled in cash ONLY at present, with subsequent cheque, bank transfer, credit/debit card, or e-payment settlement for auto-renewals. All due payments are subject to approval, and are subsequently non-refundable under any circumstances.

Membership Code of Ethics

I/We irrevocably agree to observe the Chamber's Code of Ethics, along its Memorandum & Articles of Association (M&A)-By-laws as intended general guidelines of conduct for Chamber members, who must also abide by any/all intermittently adopted regulations and measures.

That, the Chamber expects each/every member to respect all religious tenets and views; personal orientations; observe a high standard of proper conduct, and be forthright, honest and respectful in any dealings with government; officials; the public, and/or entities with whom it/he/she engages with, or is likely to.

That, the Chamber expects members to observe and comply with the laws; rules, and regulations of the Hong Kong SAR, irrespective of the members' business registration status or geographic location.

That, Members should avoid any activities that involve or would lead to their involvement in any unlawful practices. Accordingly, each member should understand the legal standards and restrictions that apply to all registered businesses in Hong Kong or other jurisdictions.

That Members are expected to endorse the Chamber's mission of promoting, representing and/or liaising, while safeguarding interests of the 'Greater China' and 'Arab World' civil business communities.

That, Members are expected to be reputable representatives of the Chamber and not use it in a way which may bring disrepute to it. That Members acknowledge that any practice or behavior which contradict the mission or the general interest of the Chamber may result in possible expulsion upon discretionary decision by the Council.

That, Members hereby note that, the foregoing are but general guidelines utilized by the Chamber in the processing of requests, and that the Chamber reserves the right to accept; reject, and/or revoke whomever it wishes at its sole discretion, and is not accountable in any way to anybody it chooses not to be involved or associated with.

That, the Chamber neither involves itself with parties suspected of breaching, any civic responsibility; the 'Hong Kong National Security Law' (HKNSL); 'Safeguarding National Security Ordinance' (SNSO); treason; secession; sedition; subversion, or implication in any illicit activities comprising weapons; prostitution; contraband; counterfeiting; any form of human-exploitation; organ trafficking; narcotics and/or intoxicants and associated areas, nor in any matters should it suspect misconduct; malfeasance; smurfing; corruption; duplicity; embezzlement; malice; abuse of power, and/or conflict of interest.

Warranties

I/We understand that, while every care has been taken on the Chamber part in preparing this information and materials, all such contents are provided without prejudice or warranty of any kind expressed or implied. In particular, regarding accuracy, non-infringement, and security, fitness for a particular purpose or freedom from error, computer viruses or malware in conjunction with such. To this effect, the Chamber reserves the right to revise, alter, accept and differ with any of the foregoing without prior notice. To this end, Members agree to absolve, indemnify and hold harmless the Chamber, its members, and associated parties from any responsibility or obligation whatsoever. Furthermore, contents available online or offline, however linked to the Chamber do not necessarily constitute an endorsement of, or responsibility for, the services, opinions, ideas, data or products presented, or their validity however provided, posted or acquired.
